As a T★CAL member your input on this website, other sites, and social media in general is a direct reflection of your school, the community you serve, and Texas Christian Athletic League as a whole.

This IS NOT the forum to express personal opinion, give or respond to disparaging remarks, or taunt or respond to taunts. This IS a site for stats and the positive reinforcement of our students and member schools.

As such, you agree to the following stipulations, regulations, and policy concerning your membership on the T★CAL team page(s).

1. You will only input true and accurate individual and team statistics using Maxpreps.
2. You will only input positive and encouraging messages to your team and other teams.
3. You will not use this website, or any other social media source, as a platform to release any incidents or issues you may have with T★CAL, T★CAL members, T★CAL students, or staff. Those issues must be filtered through the T★CAL Athletic Director and/or Executive Board.
4. You allow the use of your image, the students, staff, parents, and facilities of your school to be freely used by T★CAL either in digital or printed form.
5. You or a designated staff or volunteer will be accessible and will immediately delete or alter information deemed damaging or inaccurate to either T★CAL, T★CAL members, or T★CAL representative upon request.

If you witness a post by one of our employees, members, or students, that is inaccurate, false or harmful in nature, notify the Athletic Director immediately so that appropriate action can be taken.
